SHOW DAY - JULY 12 2010

Dear Subscriber

Showground Layout

The 2010 Showyard plan is now available for download from the site should you wish to print a copy prior to coming along to the Show. Please see the link at the foot of this newsletter.

Car Parking

There are no significant changes to the car parking arrangements this year, although we have added an additional road within the car park nearer to the village.

Traffic changes

For cars approaching from Redruth via Lanner there will be a new route to the Showground with a right turn just before Burncoose nursery. This will lead into a new one way section and thus to the car park nearer to the village. The new part of the one way system will be reversed at around 2 p.m. and will be reached via the mandatory one way system around the village. Appropriate signage will be in use.
